Hot Links – After Flava Works, Will Linking Burn You?

Our panelists will explore the recent Flava Works decision in the Seventh Circuit on liability for in-line linking, comparing it to the Ninth Circuit's contrary holding in Perfect 10, and expanding the discussion to online copyright linking more generally, a la Pinterest, etc., any "bright lines" that do or do not exist in this area, and the potential commercial impact of court rulings on linking. Professor Eva Subotnik of St. John's Law School will be moderating, with panelists Greg Leighton of Neal, Gerber & Eisenberg LLP (counsel for defendant in Flava Works) and Marty Schwimmer of Leason Ellis (pioneering IP blogger).

Scholarship / Financial Hardship Policy

A limited number of scholarships are available to judges, law clerks, law professors, law students, attorneys, pro bono attorneys and paralegals who work for nonprofit organizations, legal service organizations or government agencies, recent graduates not yet employed, and unemployed attorneys who must take CLE courses in order to meet their state requirements.

All requests must be made in writing accompanied by a completed registration form. No more than three requests per person will be considered in any one year. Requests should describe the applicant's interest in the topic and justification for a waiver of fees.

Requests should be accompanied by a recommendation from an instructor in the case of students, or supervisors in the case of law clerks or paralegals.

Requests and scholarships are not transferable. Approval will be based on need and funds available on a first come first served basis. If approved, the scholarship will result in a waiver of the course fees for the specific program application. To apply, please send your request, in writing, prior to the reservation form deadline. Students must submit a copy of their student identification cards.

All requests for scholarships should be sent to: The Copyright Society of the U.S.A., Please call (212) 354-6401 or e-mail amy@csusa.org.
